Enclosure.

Letter No. R. Dis. 69—Stamps, 38, dated Simla the 20th September 1938, from the Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Finance Department (Central Revenues), to all Governors' and Chief Commissioners' Provinces:

Supply and distribution of Stamps—Postage Stamps—Damaged, obsolete and unsaleable Stamps and Stationery in stock at Post Offices—Exchange of, for serviceable Stamps and Stationery from Treasuries.

I am directed to say that Rule 44 in Volume VI of the Posts and Telegraphs Manual is being amended by the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs and the amended rule will authorise the Post Masters in charge of Head Post Offices.—

(1) to obtain serviceable postage stamps, revenue stamps, embossed envelopes, wrappers and post-cards from Treasuries in exchange for useless (that is, defective or soiled) and obsolete ones in stock at Post Offices, and

(2) to exchange with the sanction of the Superintendent of Post Offices or First Class Post Masters, as the case may be, postage stamps and stationery for which there is no demand for those of a different denomination; provided that, in both cases, embossed envelopes, wrappers or post-cards which it is desired to exchange are in complete packets.

I am to request that, if you see no objection, the necessary instructions may be issued to the Treasury Officers under your control.

The Hon'ble the Resident's Treasury, Bangalore.

No. R. T. Sts. 426.

Copy forwarded to the Comptroller to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore, for information.

Treasury Officer, Bangalore.

Notification No. S. B. 184, dated 18*th November* 1938.

It has been brought to the notice of this office that several Savings Bank Pass Books relating to accounts which have been pledged as security are not being regularly presented at the Treasuries year after year for adding interest. The Treasuries are not also being promptly advised of the release of such security Deposits. All officers who are in possession of Savings Bank Pass Books pledged to them as security are hereby requested to see that in future the Pass Books are presented at the Treasuries once a year for adding interest and to intimate the release of the securities promptly both to the concerned treasuries and this office, as payment of further interest has to be stopped on such accounts.

M. VIRARAJA URS,
Comptroller.
